

We had a leak in shower that had left carpet wet in adjoining closet. The workman diagnosed the problem as cracks in the grout which allowed water to seep into the wall. He cut 2 holes in the drywall to be sure this was the problem, and then proceeded to apply silicone caulking in the shower, and patch, texture and paint the drywall. The result was as good as new. Highly recommend.

Carol