I am writing to let you know about the terrific customer service I received from Doug at Stucco Renovations. I have a window that is leaking. I called one of the roofers listed on your web site and described my problem to them. They felt assured that my problem was not a roof leak, but perhaps a Stucco problem. Once again I consulted your list. When I called Doug, he responded promptly. He came to the house and inspected the stucco around the window. He was fairly certain that it was not a stucco problem but more likely a window flashing issue, but he took the time to come out and take a look anyway. He then recommended someone that could take care of the window. He went out of his way and was extremely kind and courteous. Thank you for a great recommendation.
